Then draped on this ox
This color is found
In a large crayon box

But this ox's paint
Mimics another metal I'm told

Are not red, blue or teal,
They're a color you can't find

Somewhere in Pennington
Is an ox painted red, white and black
But there's also a rainbow of colors
On this ox's back

What colorful instruments!
Some green and some blue,
If you mix them together
You'll make this lovely hue

He's black, white and gold
No other colors in sight
But look close and you'll find
A tint or red mixed with white

Grazing right in downtown,
This ox is not shy
Behind all the buildings and shops
Is the color of sky
